

Can you name me?

See if you can name these formidable Victorians who made a difference in their Era. They all have a strong connection with Kent. Research about them and tell your family who, in your opinion, made the biggest impact on British society.

My parents were the Duke and the Duchess of Kent

I was the Prime Minister when Slough Fort was built

I lived in Chatham and Higham

I went to Gravesend to superintend the erection of forts in the Thames

I helped set up a medical school in Fort Pitt, which is situated in Chatham
